ABSTRACT:
The compilation procedures are steps that should be done by the public accountant office on clients to assist auditors in carrying out the task of compiling the financial statements. The goal is to find out the preparation procedures and presentation of financial statements in cooperatives and to apply MYOB software in the work. Job Training method was based on field study. In a field study of writing in a way to direct appropriate practical work of the Public Accountant Office assignment. Procedure compilation work done Public Accountant Office Isaac auditors team, Saleh, Soewondo & Partners has been conducted in accordance with service standards that have been set compiling in SPAP. And the use of MYOB is very useful for the team because the application is very easy to use and shorten time to perform services team of cooperative compilation.