MALUKU TRADITIONAL ARCHITECTURE ORNAMENT
CASE STUDY MALUKU TRADITIONAL HOUSE IN TMII
(TAMAN MINI INDONESIA INDAH)

Syahril Sain Sangadji, AGUNG WAHYUDI, ST., M.Ars
Professional Program, 2008

Gunadarma University
http://www.gunadarma.ac.id

Key Words : MALUKU, TRADITIONAL, TMII

ABSTRACT:
Traditional architecture is one of the elements of culture that grew and evolved along with the growth of a tribe. Therefore, traditional architecture, or culture is one of the supporters of the identity of a culture that needs to be preserved. With that in doing research on Traditional Houses Traditional Houses Maluku case study in TMII be published to the general public are expected to become one of the learning material about Indonesian culture in general and in particular the cultural embarrassment.